Scoutmaster sentenced

By TODD MCKENNA
Gazette-Morrison Bureau

MORRISON — Former Sterling scoutmaster Harold Davis Wednesday was sentenced to six months in the county jail and ordered to pay $7,500 in fines and reimbursement after he pleaded guilty in Whiteside County Court to sexually abusing a 13-year-old boy.

Davis, in a plea agreement, entered the guilty plea to a reduced charge of aggravated criminal sexual abuse. Davis was charged with aggravated criminal sexual assault in January following an Illinois State Police investigation into allegations that Davis molested the boy during camping trips over a span of three years. The boy is now 17.

In passing sentence, Judge Robert Castendyck chastised Davis for what he called a "disgraceful situation." Castendyck told Davis he abused his position as well as the victim's.

"When one deals with youth they perform a valuable function, but when they do what you did Mr. Davis they make an impression with the victim and others that come in contact with the victim," said Castendyck.

"You will have to answer someday to someone other than a court judge," said Castendyck. "I can't tell you how sorry I am that this occurred. It is often said that when a judge sentences someone to be executed, they often say may the Lord have mercy on you, well I hope the Lord has mercy on you Mr. Davis."

Castendyck ordered Davis to begin serving his sentence on March 4 and imposed fines of $5,000, plus $500 to the violent crimes assistance fund and $1,300 in court costs. Davis was further ordered to reimburse the victim for all medical and psychiatric expenses incurred, which Assistant State's Attorney William McNeal estimated at $700.

The terms of the agreement reportedly are satisfactory to the boy's family.

Davis waived the right to a pre-sentence investigation and sentencing hearing and instead was sentenced by Castendyck in accordance with the plea agreement.

Davis had posted bond of $7,500 which will be applied toward the fines.

As condition of his probation, Davis must submit to a mental health examination and follow any recommended treatment. He is to have no contact with the victim or his family nor any individual under the age of 18 except by approval of the mental health treatment provider.

SUBJECT: HAROLD E. "GENE" DAVIS

Dear George:

We have not heard from you for several months, and wondered if the legal action has now been completed against Mr. Davis. We would like newspaper clippings or court records which would substantiate this. This would enable us to close our file, and refuse registration any where it was attempted in the country.

Thanks for your help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear George:

Thanks so much for the newspaper clipping and the Ineligible Volunteer Record Sheet. Both of these are most help to us in establishing a file.

We would like the outcome of the legal action, once it has been completed. We feel this would then give us all the information necessary for refusing registration anywhere in the county.

Thanks again for your help.

Sincerely,

Scout master charged

By DAVID A. COWAN
©1991 Daily Gazette

STERLING — A 46-year-old former scout master was arrested by state police investigators and charged with criminal sexual assault after he allegedly molested a Sterling youth, authorities said.

Harold Davis, of Sterling, was charged after a 17-year-old male who formerly belonged to Davis' Sterling boy scout troop told authorities he had been repeatedly molested by Davis, said Captain Dave Reed, of the Illinois State Police Division of Criminal Investigation.

The complaint against Davis was filed Jan. 17, court records show.

Davis was arrested without incident by investigators last Thursday on a warrant, police said. He was released on $75,000 bond, said a spokesman from the Whiteside County circuit clerk's office.

As a condition of his bond, Davis was ordered to have no contact with persons under 18 years of age.

"At this point there is no indication to believe the allegations involved scouting activities," Reed said.

According to the victim's mother, who wished to not be identified, Davis was a scout master for Sterling Troop 98, which formerly met at St. Mary's Catholic Church. She said Davis resigned his post as scoutmaster last October. The troop since has been disbanded.

The woman said her son allegedly was molested by Davis while the two were on camping trips, and that the alleged activity occurred over the last three or four years.

A preliminary hearing for Davis is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Thursday at the Whiteside County courthouse in Morrison.
